

Board Candidate Declaration of Interests Form

Please provide details of any interest or relationship that could create, or reasonably be perceived to create, a conflict in connection with possible service on the CBF Board. Where applicable, include interests of immediate family, connected persons or close personal connections. Enter 'None' where there is nothing to disclose.

I, _____, as an individual being considered for possible appointment to the Board of Directors of the Caribbean Biodiversity Fund, declare the interests set out below in accordance with the CBF conflicts of interest policy.

Category	Details (or state 'None')
Current employment and any previous employment in which you retain a financial or other material interest.
Appointments or roles, whether paid or unpaid, including directorships, trusteeships, public bodies, advisory boards or similar positions.
Membership of professional bodies, special-interest groups, advocacy networks or associations relevant to CBF or its work.
Financial interests, investments, beneficial ownership or other material interests in entities that do or may do business with CBF, or whose interests may be affected by CBF decisions.
Gifts or hospitality offered by CBF stakeholders or other external bodies during the last twelve months, including whether each was accepted or declined.
Relationships with CBF Members, National Conservation Trust Funds, grantees, donors, contractors, service providers, investment managers or other recognised CBF stakeholders.
Any current or recent contractual, consultancy, employment, funding or other relationship with CBF or an organisation closely connected to CBF's work.
Any other actual, potential or perceived conflict, including relevant interests of immediate family, connected persons or close personal connections, that could affect or appear to affect your independence or objectivity.

To the best of my knowledge, the information provided above is complete and correct. I confirm that I have disclosed any actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest known to me and that I can exercise independent judgement in relation to possible service on the CBF Board. I undertake to notify CBF promptly if my circumstances change and to review the accuracy of this declaration as required. I consent to the information being used for CBF's nomination, due-diligence and appointment process and for no unrelated purpose.
